

Thank You for Visiting Keeler Tavern Museum & History Center!

Currently, you will be able to enjoy the following activities (use your smart phone to scan the above QR code for a map of the grounds):

- Self-guided walking tour, “Gilberts in the Gardens”, and seasonal gardens inside the walled garden
- Cannonball lodged in the corner post of the Tavern (cannonball is currently covered by plexiglass)
- Special exhibitions in the Carriage Barn (check website; timed entries)

The Museum is temporarily closed to the public due to the coronavirus pandemic.

The Museum Shop offers porch pick-up on Wednesdays (call 203-482-1939 for details).

The Business Office located in the Visitor Center is open whenever the sign is out.

Please follow the Visitor Safety Guidelines. Thank you and enjoy your visit!
