

Your Membership Matters!

Located on four beautiful acres on Main Street in Ridgefield, CT, Keeler Tavern Museum & History Center tells the town's and nation's history by interpreting the lives of the site's former residents.

We take a leading role in helping our community learn about the past to better understand our present, with the ultimate goal of creating a better future.

Your membership matters! As a member, you will become part of a mission-driven museum community where you share in the stewardship of this historic site and get access to exclusive opportunities not available to the general public. In turn, your membership provides a critical and ongoing source of revenue that funds everything we do: from immersive school programs, to culturally enriching lectures, to fun family events, to the conservation of our archival collections, to the preservation of a unique historic landmark.

Join a community committed to preserving, growing, and sharing a unique cultural site!
